CommandSoft the release of FibreJet 5

FAQ Upgrade Qualifications and Cost:

FibreJet 5 is world-class volume sharing software designed with media production environments in mind. This software is offered on a per seat purchase basis at present and the MSRP is now just $1595.00 each.

CommandSoft will be offering a subscription version of this new software at a later date this year.

To qualify for eligibility for upgrade you must be running FibreJet 4.0 licensed software or higher and all seats on the SAN must have active support in place. For users still running version 2 or 3 it will be necessary to upgrade these licenses to version 4 and renew active support on all seats on the SAN in order to qualify for upgrade pricing.

FibreJet 5.0 for Mac OS X 10.9 Maverick / Windows 8 Cross -Platform is available for immediate download for a cost of just $599.00 for the upgrade as long as all seats on the site have an active support contract.

This cost also adds an additional year of support to your existing contract at no additional charge. You can download the latest version at:
